

THANK YOU FOR BUCKETS OF HOPE!

Thank you for your contributions to Buckets of Hope for Haiti! As a result of your generosity, we have delivered 50 buckets of food to the Piedmont Baptist Association for shipment to North Carolina Baptist Men in Haiti. (You even provided money for postage!) Many Haitian families will benefit from receiving rice, black or red beans, sugar, flour, cooking oil, spaghetti noodles, and peanut butter. After they eat the food, they will have a large bucket to use!

the contemporary people. Seth Markwood (who has a special interest in outreach and increasing attendance in the contemporary service) and his wife, Allison (who plays in our praise band) are contributing ideas and materials to our outreach program. Seth is also getting people from the contemporary service to work as greeters. We like seeing our new members get involved so quickly!

CONTEMPORARY SERVICE GREETERS

If you see two greeters between 9 and 9:30 a.m. on Sundays, wearing green or black shirts (with a Friendly Avenue Baptist Church logo), these are our greeters from the contemporary service! We are grateful to two new members who attend the contemporary service for coming up with the idea of shirts for
