Thank You

Please accept our sincere appreciation for the many acts of kindness expressed by the Friendly Avenue family during our father’s and grandfather’s recent illness and death. The funeral service officiated by Rev. Steven King, the choir’s presentation in song, the many cards sent and visits made, and the “personal reflections” given by his friends will always remind us of the many “Precious Memories” your church family gave to Boyce. Be Blest!

FABC Ministry News

THANK YOU, GRIEFSHARE VOLUNTEERS!

Ladies in our church prepare luncheons for the GriefShare Support Group which meets on Wednesdays. Nancy Honeycutt decorates tables. Hugh Mann received the following letter from a lady whose mother-in-law has attended these classes.

Hi, Hugh.

My friend and former neighbor, Jenni Broyles, directed me to you and gave me your email address. I wanted to pass along a compliment to your team at church who hosts the Grief Counseling group and luncheons. My mother-in-law, Sally, has been attending in the last months of 2015. My father-in-law, Jim, died back in May 2015. Sally has visited several groups in town. The group at Friendly Avenue Baptist is the place she feels most comfortable and the one she says "works" for her.

I have found it very precious each time she tells me about the meeting. She is complimentary of the ladies who set up the luncheon afterwards. She obviously feels very welcomed by your church and "seen" by the women who are decorating tables and preparing a lunch meal for those in counseling.

I am sharing this note in hopes that you will pass along this compliment to them. I am a long-time Christian (and a Baptist) and I know there are many things we do in our lives to serve the body of Christ. Please thank all those who are leading the group, as well as those who are providing the meal afterward - and especially those who go the extra distance to decorate the tables. For some reason, those decorated tables really make my mother-in-law feel as if someone is loving on her. She mentions it to me every time.

Our family appreciates your program.

In Christ,
Leslie Morgan
